AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY

Li Cunxin is a remarkable man borne of a remarkable story. From humble beginnings in rural China to the height of the global dance world, Li's story is one of determination, passion, integrity and success.

Growing up in poverty-stricken rural China, Li was selected by Madame Mao for the Beijing Dance Academy. After years of grueling training he became one of the country's most celebrated dancers. Li was chosen to be one of China's first cultural ambassadors to the United States. While dancing at the Houston Ballet he defected, prompting a standoff at the Chinese Consulate, where he was detained.

Li documented his extraordinary story in his memoir, Mao's Last Dancer, which became an international bestseller and adapted into the critically acclaimed movie of the same name.

Li made a successful career transition from dance to finance, where he became a senior manager at a leading stockbroking firm. He is a regular speaker at conferences and functions around the world, sharing his amazing experiences addressing the importance of integrity, passion and persistence.

As a motivational and inspirational speaker, Li draws on his unique life story. It is a touching story that moves people, and Li weaves his tale to work effectively with each event.

TIMELINE

Grew up in utter poverty in rural China, but surrounded by a loving family

---

At age 11 Li was selected for Madame Mao's Beijing Dance Academy to study ballet and serve in Chairman Mao's revolution

---

After 7 years of gruelling training Li became one of the best dancers China had produced

---

After being spotted by the Artistic Director of the Houston Ballet, Li was invited to be one of the first cultural exchange students between China and the United States

---

In a dramatic political incident, Li defected while in the US, leading to a 21 hour incarceration in the Chinese Consulate in Houston, only broken with the intervention of then Vice President George Bush Snr

---

After walking away a free man, Li went on to become one of the world's best dancers

---

After a 20 year dancing career, Li made a successful transition to finance

---

Li published his international bestselling autobiography, Mao's Last Dancer, currently in its 50th reprint and sold in over 30 countries

---

Mao's Last Dancer was made into a feature film by Academy-nominated Director, Bruce Beresford, to international acclaim

---

In 2009 he was named the Australian Father of the Year.

TESTIMONIALS

“Thank you for presenting your powerful and inspirational story to IBM. It was such a wonderful and mesmerizing account of your life - I am sure our team will talk about it for months to come. It has resonated with everyone and will have long-lasting impact.”

IBM

“The World Presidents and their spouses are of course, an exceptionally critical audience. The reaction of this group to Li’s enthralling and riveting presentations was simply astounding. Li reduced much of his audience to tears and as the participants left the auditorium, many said it was the most moving and absorbing presentation they had ever heard. He was one of the highest rated speakers at our university.”

WORLD PRESIDENT’S ORGANIZATION (WPO) /
YOUNG PRESIDENT’S ORGANIZATION (YPO)

“It’s not often that we have a speaker that captivates our crowd quite like you did today – you could literally ‘hear a pin drop.’ In the past, we have had speakers from all different fields at our meetings; from professional sports men and women, political and business professionals, as well as other high profile individuals. Never have I seen such an emotional response from our staff. The feedback I have received today from our staff is a testament to you and your innate ability to move and inspire people.”

NELSON ALEXANDER (REAL ESTATE GROUP)

“Our participants were very moved by your story, with many commenting that it was one of the most inspiring presentations that they had ever heard...thank you again for making a huge impact on our conference and our staff.”

GOLDMAN SACHS GBWERE

“Li was a very personable and inspirational speaker, his relaxed style was a great way to finish a very business orientated and structured conference day.”

UNISYS SYSTEMS INC

“Very inspiring; a great choice as a keynote speaker. It has been a long time since I have heard such a wonderful delivery. A very emotional and brilliant session. The best presentation I have ever attended.”

CPA AUSTRALIA

“The passion and commitment you bring to all you undertake shone through in your words. Your life story is inspirational.”
